Forecast for Saturday 27 Aug 2022

Weather: A bright start to the day with tuffs of cloud and long sunny spells. The cloud will bubble up during the morning, leading to a few light showers around midday. However these will be few and far between, allowing a dry afternoon for most. Cloud slowly dissipating during the evening.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 600m: 80% becoming 95% or more shortly after sunrise.

Low cloud and visibility: Isolated patches of mist and fog in some valleys soon clearing, leaving the park with excellent visibilities. Cloud bases will be mostly above summits, with distant hills and summits clearly visible. Occasional showers leading to temporary deteriorations.

Meteorologist's View

Despite the favourable conditions, suitable clothing and footwear will be a necessity given the chance of showers during the day. Sun protection will also be needed given the strong late summer sunshine and moderate to high to UV levels.
